COTA Tas CEO resignation

Today I am announcing my resignation from the position of Chief Executive Officer at Council on the Ageing Tasmania (COTA TAS), effective from 24 April 2012.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my time at COTA Tas. It has been rewarding to work for a higher profile and recognition of the contribution older Tasmanians make to their communities.

The work of COTA will continue to grow in importance, as the ageing Tasmanian population continues to expand.

I have accepted the offer of the role of CEO of Lifeline and am excited about this new challenge in the next period of my professional life.

I wish to thank all staff members, the Board of Directors, Peer Educators, COTA Champions, the Tas Policy Council and the wider Tasmanian community for their support during my time at the organisation.

I would like to wish all those at COTA Tas the best for the future and I look forward to watching the organisation continue to flourish.
